2. MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION AND REVIEW PROCEDURES

- A. MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION AND CRITERIA. Affiliate Contractor Member applicants shall provide a completed and executed application and first years dues.
- B. MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REVIEW. The WI Membership Committee shall review each application, and shall determine the suitability of the applicant for membership in the association based upon criteria set forth in WI policy, including the Bylaws, Code of Ethics, other policies, applicable laws, and regulations. The Membership Committee will not consider information or matters not reasonably related to the above-referenced criteria.
- C. APPROVAL OR DENIAL OF MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION. Based upon its review, the Membership Committee shall approve or deny each complete membership application. If the application is denied, the decision shall be made known to the applicant, and the applicant shall be informed of his/her/its right to a hearing concerning the denial of membership application. A notice of request for a hearing shall be included with the notice of decision. An applicant may request a hearing concerning a denied membership application within 45 days of the date the notice of denial was mailed to the applicant. If no hearing is requested within 45 days, the denial is final, and no longer subject to hearing or appeal.

3. HEARING PROCEDURES

- A. DUE PROCESS. In the event that an applicant requests a hearing concerning a denied membership application, “due process requirements” are applicable. To satisfy due process requirements there must be: (a) Reasonable notice of the reasons for denial of the application, (b) notice of the time and place for the hearing, (c) the right of confrontation and cross examination of witnesses, and (d) an opportunity to refute all claims concerning lack of eligibility for membership. The applicant shall not be entitled to be represented by legal counsel in the hearing portion of this process.
- B. REJECTION OF MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION. Upon hearing and consideration of the facts and evidence presented, the Membership Committee shall render a decision. Every decision, whether for approval or denial of membership, shall be in writing, and denials shall specify the reasons for the denial. Notice of the decision shall be sent by return receipt requested mail to the applicant. The notice of decision must be sent by return receipt requested mail, and must be accompanied by a form to request an appeal hearing before the WI Board of Directors, and must specifically state that any appeal must be filed with a statement of particulars with the Executive of WI no later than sixty (60) days after the mailing of the decision.

4. REVIEW OF DECISION.

- A. WI Code of Ethics:

WOODWORK INSTITUTE Members, Member-Licensees, Non-Member-Licensees and their staff, are expected to conduct themselves in an ethical and professional manner.

The following Code is intended to serve as a basis for the ethical conduct of the INSTITUTE’S Members, Member-Licensees, Non-Member-Licensees and their staff, as such it will also serve as the basis for judging the merit of a formal complaint.

It is understood that some words and phrases are subject to varying interpretations, and that an ethical principle may conflict with another. Questions related to ethical conflicts can best be answered by thoughtful consideration of the fundamental principles, rather than reliance on detailed or specific regulations.

As a WOODWORK INSTITUTE Member, Member-Licensee, Non-Member-Licensee and staff, I will:

1. Be fair and take action not to discriminate or cause harm to others while respecting the values of equality, tolerance, and equal justice.
2. Not do anything which compromises or which is likely to compromise the impartiality of those who work for, or on behalf of, the INSTITUTE.
3. Be honest and trustworthy, will not make deliberately false or deceptive claims, be honest about my qualifications and circumstances that might lead to conflicts of interest. I will exercise care not to misrepresent the INSTITUTE, or its positions and/or policies, nor conduct myself in a manner to bring my position as a member into disrepute.
4. Know, respect, and follow the policies and/or procedures of the INSTITUTE, while acknowledging and supporting proper authorized use of the INSTITUTE’S resources.
5. Not use my position improperly to confer on, or secure for myself, an advantage or a disadvantage on another.
6. Not disclose information given to me in confidence, or information acquired which is of a confidential nature, without proper consent, or unless required to do so by law.
7. Honor contracts, agreements, and specifications, especially those requiring compliance to the Architectural Woodwork Standards and/or Certified or Monitored Compliance.
8. Strive to achieve the highest quality, effectiveness, dignity, and professional competence, while managing my personnel and resources to enhance the quality of our professionalism.
9. Uphold principles of this Code and promote the same to other Members, Member-Licensees, Non-Member-Licensees and their staff.
10. Treat violations of this Code as inconsistent with proper Member, Member-Licensee, and Non-Member-Licensee behavior, and understand that by engaging in gross misconduct, my membership may be terminated.
